Words from the Past—Geronimo (Goyathlay) Chiricahua Apache

Song: The Philmont Hymn

“Silver on the sage, starlit skies above,
Aspen covered hills, country that I love,
Philmont here's to thee, Scouting Paradise
Out in God's country – tonight.
Wind in whisp'ring pines, eagles soaring high
Purple mountains rise against an azure sky.
Philmont here's to thee, Scouting Paradise
Out in God's country – tonight.”

The Boy Scout Prayer

Song: America the Beautiful— words by Katherine Lee Bates, melody by Samuel Ward

“O beautiful for spacious skies,
For amber waves of grain,
For purple mountain majesties
Above the fruited plain!
America! America!
God shed his grace on thee
And crown thy good with brotherhood
From sea to shining sea!”

Words for the Future—Ancient Indian Proverb

*“Treat the earth well:
It was not given to you by your parent,
It was loaned to you by your children.
We do not inherit the Earth from our ancestors,
We borrow it from our Children.”*
